

Oath and Agreement for Spook Trail Staff

I _____, do solemnly swear that all topics discussed concerning the Spook Trail 2004 will be kept to the utmost secrecy. By having the honor and duty as part of the Spook Trail staff I agree that I will keep all topics discussed in Spook Trail meeting confidential.

If I break this trust, I therefore forfeit my responsibility as ever being part of the Spook Trail staff again. I understand that I may be punished severely by the mad scientist and chainsaw man if I do tell any spook trail secrets.

Rules and Regulations:

- Absolutely nothing about the Spook Trail should be discussed with anyone that is not Spook Trail Staff.
- Costumes provided by Spook Trail management must be taken care of, so that future spook trails can be held.
- During the Spook Trail, do not touch anyone that is part of the audience.
- Safety is the number one priority.
- The director of the Spook Trail is the absolute authority during training and preparation of the spook trail.
- No real weapons such as Knives, TNT, Guns, Swords, Hatchets, and any other items of death will be used in the Spook Trail.
- In the dark, a flashlight is required. (Please bring a flashlight)

By signing this document, I understand that my duties are to benefit the Spook Trail director and supporting management. It is also my duty to have fun!!! I will give my utmost obligation to honor all rules and elements that are pertained in the rules section of this document.
